Early Career Physicians Members-at-Large (2 positions)

Why should you be elected to this position

My name is Daniel Myers. I am an early career neurosurgeon in Pittsburgh, PA. Throughout my career I have been dedicated to improving the training of young doctors. I feel this emphasis is now more than ever of the upmost value given the unfortunate intersections of medicine and politics. I wish to use my experience and commitment to science and education to help maintain our profession separate from politics, and further the goals of young physicians across our great commonwealth.
