Physicians — CME Information

The Pennsylvania Medical Society is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Pennsylvania Medical Society designates this live activity for a maximum of 9.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

You will receive an email with instructions on how to access the online evaluation immediately following the course. In order to receive CME credit, you must complete the online evaluation and submit an electronic attestation form. This evaluation is necessary in order to meet CME requirements established by the Pennsylvania Medical Society.

If you need to update your email address, please stop by the registration desk to do so. This information will not be shared with outside parties or companies and is for the sole use of CME evaluation purposes.

Attorneys — CLE Information

Those who have paid for CLE Credits may obtain a CLE evaluation form from the Registration Desk upon your departure.

CME Disclosures

Financial relationships reported by Faculty and members of the Physician’s Legal Issues Conference Planning Committee are provided below. During all phases of the planning and development of this activity any areas of conflict were managed through a peer-review process and/or through individual recusal when appropriate.

The Planning Committee has reviewed all presenter disclosure reports, identified potential conflicts of interest and implemented strategies to manage those areas of conflict, where they exist.
